The daunting challenge of poverty in India needs little introduction. Children born to parents living below the poverty line in backward, rural areas strive hard just for existence and are trapped in a cycle of abject poverty with daily struggles laced with hunger and despair. In that vicious circle, schools are often too far way, beyond even dreams.

“AIM for SEVA” (AIM) is bringing them hope through education. AIM is an international organization with presence in several countries. The Canadian chapter is registered as a not-for-profit charity, registered in Ontario.

Education is empowering. Imparted in appropriate settings, it helps these children break through the shackles of poverty. Our student homes provide the appropriate ambience: Warmth, wholesome meals, tutoring and eventually, skills to help them get a progressive career. Close to schools, they ensure that the students focus on education, as their basic needs are now taken care of.

The AIM Canadian chapter has an excellent reputation in terms of its zero administration cost, hard working volunteers, and integrity. Toronto is the highest donor city by far, amongst all donor chapters of AIM of SEVA world-wide. The Canadian chapter has succeeded in getting donations for construction of 24 Hostels and 2 Schools. The support from the Canadian chapter, with over $6.1 million collected in the last 17 years, currently sponsors 604 children with more to be added every year.

We do this because we believe that every child has a right to education in addition to the basic necessities of life. Every child should have an opportunity to earn a decent living by acquiring appropriate skills.

AIM for SEVA's parent organization in India has Special Consultative Status with the United Nations' Economic and Social Council, a testimony to the fact that our team is credible, focused, and results-oriented. In June 2018, AIM for SEVA's parent organization was been awarded the coveted platinum certificate by GuideStar India, which certifies the due diligence of an organisation for legal & financial compliances. This certification ensures that the organisation is transparent and holds itself accountable to not just its stakeholders but also to the general public.

Share our vision. Find out how you can give back a child the childhood ...and a good night sleep.
